

STEAM SHOVEL TEARING A BIG HOLE IN B STREET

Snapshots taken yesterday showing the work of grading for the new route of the Sixth avenue car line on B street, north of First avenue. The first picture gives an idea of the depth of the cut, only a small portion of the teams and wagons appearing above the level of the street. The second picture is taken from the opposite side to show the line of wagons waiting to receive their loads from the steam shovel. The lower picture shows the steam shovel in operation, and just about to dump a load of dirt.

SEEK IMPROVED ROAD TO OGDEN

Council Will Be Asked to Better Highway to the Davis County Line.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ACTIVE

WILL URGE COUNTY BOARDS TO TAKE UP THE PROJECT.

At the meeting of the good roads committee of the Commercial club yesterday afternoon it was decided to ask the city council on next Monday night to improve the north road out of the city toward Ogden as far as the Davis county line. Committees were appointed to take steps to induce the county commissioners of Davis and Weber counties to continue the improvements in the road, so that there will be a broad, smooth highway connecting Salt Lake and Ogden.

A letter was prepared, which will be sent to Mayor Bransford and the city council by President W. J. Halloran of the Commercial club, in the names of the members of the good roads committee were given as follows: T. H. Smith, chairman; J. Bergerman, John Brooks, A. H. Christensen, W. H. Ellison, J. P. Cahoon, W. P. Kiser, J. C. Little, De Witt B. Lowe, E. D. Miller, P. J. Moran, Sam H. Sharmah, J. E. McGurrian, C. A. Quigley, Samuel Paul and George T. Odell.

Sub-committees were named as follows: For the improvement of the north road through the city limits of Salt Lake to the border of Davis county—W. H. Ellis, chairman; A. H. Christensen, P. J. Moran and Dr. Fred Stauffer. For the improvement of the north road through Davis county—J. Bergerman, chairman; John Brooks, Sam H. Sharmah and W. P. Kiser. For the improvement of the north road through Weber county—J. C. Little, chairman; De Witt B. Lowe, Charles A. Quigley and George T. Odell.

Of Commercial Importance.

There was an interesting discussion of the subject of good roads. Some of the speakers said that the roads leading into Salt Lake are used by persons living in a wide area throughout Davis county to the north and Utah county to the south, and that it was an important matter to make the way to the Salt Lake market as easy as possible for those who wish to come here in vehicles with farm products or for the purpose of buying. It was also urged that a good wagon and automobile road is needed to connect Ogden and Salt Lake. The action decided upon to induce the city council to appropriate money for the improvement of the north road was in the direction of procuring the desired better highway leading to Ogden. The north road, which passes Hot Springs, is said to be at present in bad condition, but Chairman Smith of the good roads committee stated that it would take only a comparatively small sum to put the road in excellent shape. Members of the committee said that they felt sure of the hearty co-operation of the Salt Lake city council, the Salt Lake county board, and the boards of Weber and Davis counties in the work of bettering the roads leading into the city.

MAP IS INCORRECT.

Election Districts Not Shown Properly in County Publication. It has been discovered that the map of the new election districts in the city prepared by J. B. Swanson county surveyor, at the behest of the commissioners, is incorrect, and that the 56 copies printed will have to be thrown away. The map does not show District No. 42. This district is between Fifth avenue and the city limits to the north and A and H streets. The only correct map thus far is the one made for The Herald by the city engineer which was published a week ago last Monday morning.

UNIVERSITY ANNUAL FILLED WITH PICTURES AND LIVELY FEATURES

The 1908 Utonian, the college annual at the university, appeared yesterday. The Utonian was turned out by a staff of juniors with Arthur B. Parsons as editor. The other members of the staff are Fred Sharmah, manager; Fred Monahan, Addie Cannon, Alta Rawlins, Ralph Hartley, Harold Robinson, Edna Coates, J. Barlow, Lucy Farnsworth, Jessie Benton, Lee Turner and Eva Johnson.

The book contains 250 pages and is bound with a brown leather cover. In the upper left hand corner of the cover is a block of U in gold with 98 across the bottom and the word "Utonian." The book is well illustrated.

The frontispiece of the Utonian is a picture of W. W. Ritter, president of the board of regents, to whom the juniors have dedicated their work in appreciation of his efforts for a bigger and better university. The next two pages are given to Professor George Clayton Gilbert, who died recently. Several pages are devoted to the regents and the faculty.

The next section of the book deals with the classes and student societies. There are pictures of each graduate in cap and gown with a characteristic article and the senior's record at college. The junior class also has individual pictures. The picture of the sophomores is one of the most original in the book. It shows the entire class standing on top of the water house, a building just outside the campus.

The freshmen pictures show the class grouped around the flag worn in the flag rush. A short history of each class follows the class pictures. The individual pictures of each member of the normal and kindergarten graduates are published along with a breezy lot of normal news. The pictures of the fraternities and the fraternities in the order of their establishments follow, along with pictures of the fraternity houses.

The next pages are devoted to the Chronicle. There are pictures of the debating team, the engineering society, Aesculapian Mathal, Barristers' club, Dramatic club, Modern Language circle, Archaeology, Utah Academy of Sciences, Biological society, Six Footers' club, Music, Glee club, Chemiker Sangerfest with the different class songs, the band, Rooters' club, the flag rush, and the school calendar.

The rest of the book is devoted to athletics, except the last few pages, which contain many good cartoons, personals and jokes. The athletic department is one of the best features of the book. It contains a picture of all the teams representing the school in athletics and all the class teams, besides pictures of the athletic authorities and sporting cartoons. There are individual pictures of the members of the football teams.

STOLE 15-CENT PIPE. James Wood Released After Several Days in Jail. James Wood was found guilty yesterday in police court of the theft of a 15-cent pipe from R. Morro, a cigar dealer at 567 West Second South. City Prosecutor Edgar A. Rogers asked the court to impose a jail sentence because of the fact that Wood had served sentences both in the city and county jails. Judge Diehl said that inasmuch as Wood had already been in jail several days while awaiting trial, that the offense was not of sufficient gravity to warrant a longer imprisonment. He then discharged Wood.

FIRST CAR OF STORAGE WOOL

OFFER FROM PHILADELPHIA

OREGON MAY JOIN HANDS WITH UTAH GROWERS.

Investigation was made yesterday by C. B. Stewart, secretary of the Utah wool growers, into the charge that several of the sheepmen, one of them a prominent figure in the preliminary agitation for the united movement against bear influences in the wool market, had deserted to the men who were offered a chance to sell their clips at a substantial advance over the prevailing price for wool. Mr. Stewart refused to make public the result of his investigation, saying that as President Callister of the association was in Tooele he could not make a statement concerning the alleged disloyalty of some of the wool growers until after a conference with Mr. Callister.

A telegram was received last night by Secretary Stewart from a large concern in Philadelphia, offering to advance 3 cents a pound on 1,000,000 pounds of wool at the time it is placed in cars for shipment, with the promise of the advance of the remaining portion of 60 or 70 per cent of the prevailing market price of the wool as soon as the shipments arrive at Philadelphia.

Mr. Stewart intimated that there was a possibility that some shipments would be made to Philadelphia as well as to Boston.

Another telegram was received from C. H. King of Omaha. Mr. King said: "Can you send me a statement for Omaha to help establish a western market?" Mr. Stewart replied that the wool growers had decided to store in Boston and Philadelphia.

Oregon May Co-operate. F. D. McCully of the McCully company of Joseph, Or., wrote for information concerning the united movement of the wool growers, and said that similar action was contemplated by the sheepmen in his vicinity.

Dan P. Smyth, secretary of the Oregon Wool Growers' association, also wrote for the details of the Utah campaign explaining that as the wool buyers in Oregon were bearing the market there, the sheepmen were ready to follow the example of their Utah brethren, and store their product until better prices are to be had. Tooele county will have the honor of making the first shipment of wool to Boston. The first car will leave Tooele on Saturday.

Secretary Callister of the state board of sheep commissioners, who is assisting Mr. Stewart, had many callers yesterday at his office. The wool growers of the state, not wishing to waste the time that would be spent in correspondence, are flocking to Salt Lake to discuss the storing proposition with the leaders in the movement.

SAYS HUSBAND DRINKS.

Wife Also Charges Cruelty in Divorce Complaint. Alleging that her husband is an habitual drunkard and that he also is cruel to her, Leonard Leiser yesterday brought suit for divorce against Charles W. Leiser. The wife says that for the past year her husband has treated her cruelly and has frequently struck her. He comes home drunk and interferes with her business as a keeper of a rooming house. The wife also charges that he has accused her of loving another better than she does him.

It is asserted that Leiser is a telegraph operator and earns $75 a month and owns an interest in a patent worth $200. They were married May 16, 1888, and have four children, of which the wife asks the court to divide $2,000 alimony payable at the rate of $40 a month.

OLSON SMASHES FURNITURE

Beats His Wife for Second Time After She Secures His Release From Jail. Within a few hours after his wife had secured his release from the city jail, George Olson is accused of attacking her and several other women living in the rooming house of Mrs. Mattie Martin at 662 West First South street. After some difficulty Olson was again arrested and is now in jail on two charges of disturbing the peace.

Olson was first arrested Tuesday night by Patrolman Robert Golding on complaint of Mrs. Martin, who said that Olson had come home with his pay check and because his wife wanted him to use it in paying some debts he beat her cruelly. Mrs. Martin said that the wife was afraid to cause his arrest and that for that reason Mrs. Martin had notified the police.

Mrs. Olson yesterday came to the city jail and furnished $5 bail for her husband. The afternoon Olson returned to the rooming house and in a demonaical frenzy began to attack everyone who secured his liberty for him, was attacked and beaten by the drunken husband, and all of the other women were driven from the house. Followed Carey and Gillespie were called hurriedly and after a search through the rooming house overturned furniture found Olson hiding under a bed. They called upon him to come out, but he refused to do so. Finally they pulled up the bed and arrested Olson.

Our fire insurance companies were the leaders in paying losses incurred in the recent Chelsea fire. And they all paid dollar for dollar. The very first to complete payments was one of our companies, and the others were among the first.

That's the way they did it at San Francisco, Baltimore, Toronto and other cities that have sustained conflagrations. That's the way they'll do if Salt Lake burns up. COMPARISON OF EXCURSION RATES SHOWS BIG ADVANCE THIS YEAR

When the Salt Lake school teachers go on their vacations in June they will find that it will cost them considerably more money to travel this year than last. The excursion rates east have taken a mighty jump and the school means will have to do some extra figuring in connection with their expected outings.

The rate this year to Chicago and return is $5. Last year it was $3.50. To get to St. Louis and back it will cost $4, although it took only $3 in 1907. The round trip to Minneapolis and St. Paul will be $2, against $1.50 last year, and it will cost $40 to go to Omaha, Kansas City and other Missouri river points, although the fare last year was $32.

At the railroad offices it was stated yesterday that the jump in excursion rates was due to recent unfavorable railroad legislation in states east of Utah. Several of the passenger agents declared that at present, owing to the 2-cent fare in some of the states, it is impossible for railroads to give the low excursion rates which prevailed last year.

The passing of laws relating to the reduction of fares in some of the states, said a passenger agent, "has forced the railroads to make a number of changes in their methods of doing business. Receipts have been reduced to a considerable extent because of the 2-cent fare east of Salt Lake and the roads no longer give charity rates or rates to clergymen. In fact, they have been forced to cut off all of the former concessions."

"As far as the railroads here are concerned, the excursion rates over their lines remain substantially the same as a year ago. The advance to eastern points merely means that the roads east of here cannot put their rates as low as in former years."

TRAMP ROBS BENEFACTOR.

A tramp whom Mrs. S. T. Hummel of 372 West Sixth South street had befriended, yesterday afternoon stole a lady's gold watch from Mrs. Hummel's residence. The tramp came to the house and asked that he be allowed to do some work in return for something to eat. Mrs. Hummel had him beat a rug and put it down in the dining room. Later she gave him something to eat and some money. Half an hour after the tramp had gone it was found that he had taken a lady's hunting-case gold watch from the sideboard in the dining room.
